STONEHAM HIGH SCHOOL

STONEHAM, MASSACHUSETTS

FOREWORD

This, the yearbook of our class, is to be cherished
by each of its members.
It FAITHFULLY records in words and pictures moments
that will dwell with us forever.
Our wonderful teachers will remain
in our thoughts
throughout our lives.
No one will ever forget
the Senior Play,
the games won and lost,
the Carnival Ball,
the club meetings,
and the Senior Prom.
We all have gained
from our years here.
Now we must leave
and pass the Torch
on to those who will follow.

CURRICULUM

In those times when advanced learning is stressed, Stoneham High keeps pace with other secondary schools across the nation. Its curriculum provides the students with a variety of subjects adjustable to each individual. Our teachers with their tradition of dedicated service have continued to improve the standards at Stoneham High. They have imparted to us the torch of learning—may we carry it high.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The thought that I would leave to the members of the class of 1965 are contained in this quotation by Henry Van Dyke entitled "The Life Worth Living" —

"There is a life that is worth living now, as it was worth living in the former days, and that is the honest life, the restful life, the unselfish life, cleansed by devotion to an ideal. There is a battle worth fighting now as it was worth fighting then, and that is the battle for justice and equality: to make our city and our state free in fact as well as in name; to break the rings that strangle liberty, and to keep them broken; to cleanse, so far as in our power lies, the fountains of our national life from political, commercial, and social corruption; to teach our sons and daughters by precept and example the honor of serving such a country as America. That's work worthy of the finest manhood and womanhood."

I extend my personal congratulations to each of you on your graduation from Stoneham High School. May you look with pride at your school and apply the lessons learned to a successful and happy future.

For each of you my fondest wish is a full, happy and prosperous future in all that you may undertake to do always remembering that your school remains ready to be of future assistance whenever the need arises.

From Hand to Hand

ENGLISH

Our outstanding English teachers, under the direction of Mr. Bernard Smith, have worked ceaselessly to develop our written, spoken, and comprehensive skills. They have nurtured a deep respect for our native tongue, its history, and its composition. Individual expression is encouraged through oral reports, debates, and panel discussions. Students are also required to express ideas in written form. We are deeply grateful to this department.

HISTORY

Mr. Roger Lamson

The Torch Passes

HISTORY

Our history department, under the direction of Mr. Roger Lamson, helps us to understand the importance of good citizenship. The new International Relations and Government course, United States History and World Geography are examples of the various courses available to the student in this area of study. Panel and class discussions, movies, and special projects make our social studies classes enjoyable as well as informative.

Future politicians study the fundamentals of government.

Seated left to right: Mr. Fred Kiamie, Miss Patricia Gavin, Mr. Roger Lomsan, Mrs. Lois Gold, Mrs. Julio Muller. Standing: Mr. Dovid Kline, Mr. John Feltch, Mr. Edward Rundlett, Mr. William Brogno.

Mr. Chester Jardan, chairman of the Mathematics Department.

MATHEMATICS

In today's world of rising technological advances, the importance of mathematics cannot be over-stressed. For this reason, Stoneham High has made it a point to have a varied number of mathematics courses to fulfill the needs of all the students. In addition to the standard courses, the department has incorporated advanced material into the curriculum for students having special interests and abilities in this field.

These students find calculus as easy as π a la made.

The trigonometry class listens attentively to Mr. Paist.

AND SCIENCE

A Beacon Bright

LANGUAGES

Proficiency in a language other than English is the primary aim of this fine department. As this end is gradually achieved, an introduction to the cultures of other societies is incorporated. The student in this program emerges with an excellent and invaluable linguistic background. For this reason we are sincerely grateful to the staff of the language department.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Thanks to our modern facilities, courses in Machine Shop, Woodworking, Printing, Sheet Metal, and Mechanical Drawing are offered at Stoneham High. The industrial arts program provides excellent opportunities for trade-minded boys to develop their skills. Several of our social affairs could not function without these boys and their fine work.

Mr. Walter Herrick and Mr. Renato Paalini of the Industrial Arts Department.

HOME ECONOMICS

In home economics classes the girls learn the numerous arts of maintaining a home. With all the advantages of modern appliances, the girls progress rapidly to become well-informed, accomplished housewives. Under the careful instruction and watchful eye of Miss Inez Bernor, our home economics department provides a substantial education in all facets of homemaking.

WE WELCOMED . . .

Bill Peterson from Sweden.

Bill Petersan came ta us this year under the auspices af the Internatianal Christian Yauth Exchange. Certainly we had expected sameane special coming from Sweden, but we had never anticipated anyane as charming and enthusiastic. Giving educational talks about his country, he has enlightened many of our local and school organizations. His presence has helped to promote better relations and understanding between Sweden and the United States.

We are certain that all the girls at Staneham High wauld welcame any af Billy's campatriats.

Christel Goetting of West Germany.

Christel Goetting came to Stoneham High School in March of 1964 from Eschwege, West Germany. Independent of an exchange program, Christel stayed at the home of Mr. Kellogg Kyle, who in 1958 was host to her brother Wilfried. She has been sent to broaden our knowledge of other cultures and has provided a point of contrast between the European society and ours. Germany could not have sent us a more amiable and attractive ambassador.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Chosen to lead the class of '65 were: President, Jeffrey Sturgis; Vice-President, Diane Zackular; Secretary, Maureen Sullivan; Treasurer, George Alger.

Our advisers, Mrs. Margaret Garvin and Mr. Clark Richordson, were a constant help in guiding our class during its Senior year.

Social Chairmen, Nancy Carroll and Jacqueline Seitz, contrived to fill the year with fun.

SPORTS

Football, hockey, baseball, and a host of other sports
help keep the collective student "body"
of Stoneham High fit.
Certainly
as important as this, however,
is the school spirit
generated by a come-from-behind win,
or, occasionally,
a heart-breaking loss.
For sports at Stoneham High mean maturity through participation and competition.

THE SPARTAN SPOKESMAN

The class of '65 can take a bow for introducing the first S.H.S. newspaper, the Spartan Spokesman. Although the staff had little experience in journalism, they undertook ambitiously the challenge to put out a 10-page memeographed newspaper.

Toward the end of the year the goal of the editorial board was achieved. The last two editions of the Spokesman went to press at a professional printer. The staff's pioneer effort proved to be well worth the struggle.

Music Brightens

GLEE CLUB

This year, due to the increased size of the Glee Club, changes were made in rehearsal times. During activity periods and study halls, the sound of music can be heard coming from the auditorium. Once again the Glee Club's outstanding performances made us proud at the Cornival Ball, Spring Concert, and other musical programs. Thanks to them, many of our school octivities have been brightened.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

This year our marching band skillfully performed a number of populor hits for entertainment at our football games and pre-game rallies. At the Carnival Ball, the tolented Dance Band set the feet tapping with their snappy presentotions. The concert band and orchestra mode invaluable contributions to the Spring Concert with their hormonious strains. We ore indeed grateful to these talented groups for their contributions to our school functions.

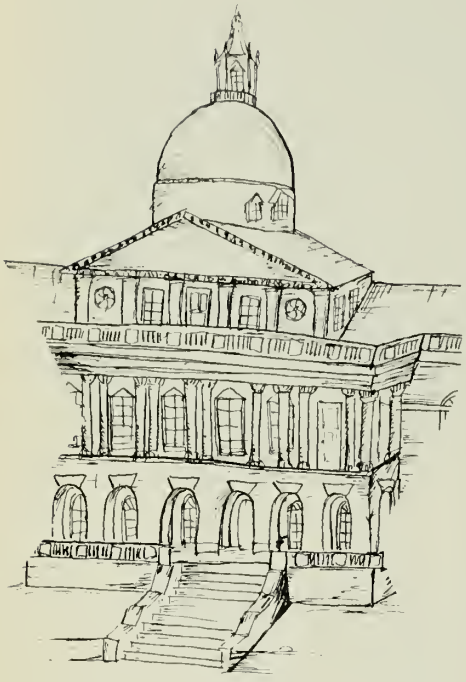
STUDENT EXCHANGE DAY



STUDENT EXCHANGE DAY

Each year Stoneham High picks a number of its versatile students to represent it at another school on Student Exchange Day. Again this year we were fortunate enough to have five well-qualified Seniors chosen. There is no doubt that Sue, Bonnie, Craig, Joe, and Bob did an exemplary job in representing us.

Exchange Day Representatives: Craig Cheyne, Bonnie Peoples, Joseph Cerrone, Susan Beattie, Robert W. York.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE

The school voted to send Richord Cole to the Stote House as its Student Government Representotive.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY

In April students from all parts of Massachusetts have a chance to take over the reins of the state government for a day. Stoneham High, which has always been ably represented, had a difficult choice among the five well-qualified candidates. By popular vote Richard Cole was selected.

Candidates: Richard Cole, Joseph Cerrone, Bonnie Peoples, Kenneth De Roeck, Robert York.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

Pat Basha and Eric Vaughan hold the daars before an anrushing tide af students.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

Under the able direction of Mr. Fred Kiamie, this year's Traffic Squad has performed its task admirably. With the increased enrollment, congestion in the halls has increased also; however, the members have done an excellent job in keeping traffic moving smoothly. The squad is to be commended for the fine service they perform in maintaining order between classes.

GIRLS' AND BOYS' STATE REPRESENTATIVE

MASSACHUSETTS GIRLS' AND BOYS' STATE

Each year the American Legion sponsors Massachusetts Girls' and Boys' State, giving interested and qualified students an opportunity to learn more about the functions of the state government. Our representatives this year did an outstanding job, and were singled out for special honors during the week they attended.

Chasen ta represent Staneham at Girls and Boys State were Diane Milia, Renee Scarpitta, Kendall Greenleaf, Richard Cale, Russell Frink, Rabert Yark, and Jeffrey Sturgis.

SCIENCE CLUB

"A PAGE OF DESTINY"

On March 20 at Cambridge High and Latin School a group of Stoneham High Schools students, representing all four grades, participated in the preliminaries of the annual Massachusetts High School Drama Festival. After a series of plays of a highly serious nature, the festival audience happily welcomed "A Page of Destiny," a gentle comedy which our own thespians presented in a highly professional manner.

Director
Mr. Robert Silvermon

Mr. Silvermon offers helpful directions to some of the cast members.

"All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players."

"It's a bird, it's a plane, it's Dick."

"BEST FOOT FORWARD"

"Me??? Hide girls? In here?"

"You don't suppose I left them out there?"

The royal couple and their court: C. Lowthers, P. Cogan, J. Ardizoni, J. Poul, L. Greenslode, M. Sullivon, E. Voughon, J. Gardt, P. MocLennon, S. Stodder, M. Forrest, D. Zoculor.

The elegant waltz group donced with its usuol precision.

CARNIVAL BALL

This year's Carnival Ball was a delightful, sell-out success. The theme was "Mardi Gras," with students and faculty alike participating. Old favorites such as the waltz group and the majorettes' act and new ones like the folk-singing groups contributed to a panoramic view of entertainment, covering everything from comedy through dancing. Words can never express the magic of the evening, nor are they necessary for those who attended.

Our majorettes "Dain' Whot Comes Natur'ly."

Master of Ceremonies George Alger.

Queen Moureen Sullivon and King Eric Vaughon.

Bette Elliott ond Dovid Kline, foculty folk singers.

The "Echoes," one of the hits of the show.

Betty ond Lois Worren brought down the house with their "Joe the Bortender" oct.

The inimitoble Sturgis brothers song like pros.

JUNIOR PROM

The receiving line wos very lang this yeor.

Everyone chatted during intermission.

On May 8, 1964 our class held its long-to-be-remembered Junior Prom, "Circus Holiday." This original theme lent itself to imaginative and colorful interpretation. Elaborate decorations, music, and lighting created an enchanting atmosphere for all those who attended. Needless to say, we all enjoyed it thoroughly.

Leslie Janes, Jeff Sturgis, Louis Long, Joanne Mudge, sit this one out.

One Last Waltz.

Imaginotive decorotions (not the boys) helped liven the sophomore-sponsored donce.

TWIRP TWIRL

A long-time tradition at Stoneham High, the twirp-twirl is one of its highlights of the social year. "The Woman Is Required to Pay" is the theme, providing girls with the opportunity to ask "That Special Boy," and boys with the opportunity to rest that over-taxed wallet.

Andy Hosier ond Andreo Nelson burn up the floor.

Both seniors ond underclassmen enjoyed o good time.

Michlyn Scorpitto and Donno Poole show off their dote.

We are indeed grateful to the merchants, businessmen, and professional people in Stoneham for their generous and enthusiastic support
of all our school activities.
Through placing an advertisement
in these pages
they have helped make possible
the excellent quality of the 1965 Torch.
